with each union during the last three years upto June, 1989?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF CIVIL AVIATION AND TOURISM (SHRI SHIVRAJ PATIL): (a) to (d) ITDC is a multi unit, multi discipline undertaking providing tourist services at various places in the country. Presently, 66 Trade Unions are operating in ITDC. The names of these Unions is placed at Annexure [See Appendix CLI Annexure No. 162] Out of these 65 Unions, 4 have been recognised by the ITDC. Two of these recognised Unions are affiliated to AITUC, one to INTUC and one is functioning as an independent Union.

Each Union has a separate identity in the unit where it functions; none of these unions has been given recognition/representative character on all-India basis; some of the unions, however, in the units have similar names but have separate identity. As regards membership, the same keeps on fluctuating from time to time.

ITDC has an open door policy and meetings with the unions are held frequently. While policy matters (like wage revision, terms and conditions of service etc.) are discussed at the Corporate Level, the other matters and day-to-day issues/grievances are discussed/resolved at the unit level which fall within their purview. No separate record, however, is being maintained of issues taken up/resolved with the unions.
